

What to Collect Now: Antique Maps

These historic pieces make for modern-day works of art. From pictorial to topographical, we've charted out nine types worth exploring.

BY MELINDA PAGE JUL 9, 2014

1 OF 9

Pull-Down Maps

Wall maps began appearing in American classrooms in the 1940s. This one was produced by Chicago-based Nystrom in 1951. At more than 5 feet wide, it makes a big statement for just $400.

